The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.

Amen

Q. 100. What doth the preface of the Lord's prayer teach us?

A. The preface of the Lord's prayer, which is, Our Father which art in heaven, teacheth us to draw near to God with all holy reverence and confidence, as children to a father able and ready to help us; and that we should pray with and for others.

I want to express many, many thanks to all who have been such a great blessing with your cards, notes, emails, calls, visits and especially your prayers for me during my recovery with a shattered femur from my fall. The recovery seems long and slow and I still will not be able to walk again until sometime in May, but our faithful covenant God has been very gracious to me and I completely trust Him to restore me and accomplish His purpose for my good and His glory! The love and encouragement from the body of Christ has truly been a very great blessing and I daily praise the Lord for all He gives me through His people. Thanks again!

May the grace of our faithful Lord and Savior Jesus Christ be with you all.

In Christ Alone, Pastor Norm Brower
